Description

A largely reformed cortijo set just a few minutes from the centre of Albox, on a slightly elevated setting, giving it magnificent views.

The property requires a little more work to produce the final result but none structural or major, mainly changing/adding doors & accesses and re-organising the distribution of the property.

The kitchen is large as is a bedroom and what is currently the garage which is in the centre of the building. Outside there is a huge south-facing garden with a few olive trees to the right, this land is urbanisable and therefore is a good investment. The area is pretty much flat & is all fenced.

There is a fitted kitchen with modern units.
